MEDIA ADVISORY

March 25, 2021

Welcome to the MMF's 52nd Annual General Assembly

Winnipeg, MB in the Homeland of the Métis Nation – The Manitoba Metis Federation (MMF) would like to invite you to watch our first virtual Annual General Assembly (AGA) via live-stream this weekend, March 27 and 28. The AGA will commence each day at 9:30 a.m., running until approximately 4:30 p.m. unless adjourned by the Assembly at an earlier time.

During the Assembly, we will be discussing our progress in housing, education and support for Citizens during COVID-19, as well as our plans for the future. Dignitaries, Ministers and leaders will be attending virtually from across Canada.

David Chartrand, President of the Manitoba Metis Federation, will also be making two significant funding announcements: one to support families of missing and murdered loved ones and another to support professional development for Métis Youth.

The livestream of the MMF AGA will be available at the following locations for your convenience:

MMF AGA Website - <http://aga.manitobametis.com>

MMF Website – www.mmf.mb.ca

MMF YouTube Channel - <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCtYObT8W02Dm8i722JDgtPg>

The MMF invites you to tune into the AGA to celebrate our victories, despite the challenges of the past year.
